DATE:
June 2012

AREA:
Student Welfare

POLICY:
ANTI-BULLYING

RATIONALE:
Bullying is anti-social. It has no place at Toongabbie Public School. Toongabbie Public School is committed to providing a safe and caring environment, which fosters respect for others. All people entering the school have a right to feel respected and free to express themselves without fear of harassment. It is the responsibility of every member of the school community to be proactive in ensuring that bullying is not tolerated.

POLICY STATEMENT:
This school is committed to the elimination of discrimination (including direct and indirect racial, sexual and religious discrimination, vilification and harassment) in its organisation, structures and culture, in its curriculum and the learning and working environments for which it is responsible.

ANTICIPATED OUTCOMES:
Through the implementation of this policy, students, staff and school community members will:

- understand their rights and responsibilities in regard to this policy
- know who the school’s Anti-Discrimination contact person is
- feel safe and comfortable in their working/learning environment
- feel confident and safe in affirming their cultural and religious beliefs.

IMPLEMENTATION:
Bullying is antisocial. It has no place at Toongabbie P.S. It is the responsibility of every member of the school community to be proactive in ensuring that bullying behaviour is rejected.

At Toongabbie P.S. we will:

- openly talk about bullying – ‘what it is, how it affects us and what we can do about it’
- teach our children the skills that will build their self-esteem and empower them to take the responsibility for themselves – and give them the opportunity to practise these skills
- formulate a policy that clearly states what actions we will take to deal with bullying behaviour

We will do this using the following strategies:

- explicit teaching – activities focusing on social skills, raising self esteem and addressing conflict resolution are a part of the school curriculum in Health and Personal Development
- bully register (detention book)
- newsletter sent home at the beginning of each year explaining the sorts of behaviours that are categorized as bullying, and reminding the school community that bullying is not acceptable
- assembly reminders
- buddy system – encourage younger children to tell
- continue to explore other options – Peer Support, Mentoring Program
- annual review of policy – evaluation survey at the end of the year.
Reporting of Bullying

Children and their parents can report incidences of bullying to any teacher or the Principal. Any bullying incidences that are dealt with will be recorded. The staff will be responsible for implementing the program and ensuring that incidences of bullying are dealt with in a manner consistent with the policy and as soon as possible after it is reported or observed.

Bullying can take many forms. We consider the following behaviour to be bullying:

Physical
- hitting, kicking, punching
- pushing, shoving, spitting
- making rude gestures
- taking or damaging something which belongs to someone else
- forcing others to hand over food, money or something else which belongs to them
- making someone do something they don’t want to

Verbal
- name calling
- teasing
- threatening
- making fun of someone because of their appearance, physical characteristics, gender or cultural background (including racist comments)
- making fun of someone’s actions

Psychological
- excluding others from the game or group
- spreading untrue stories about others
- being sent hurtful notes
- has graffiti written about them on desks, books, computers etc
- ignoring

Social
- Use of technology for cyber bulling

AIM:
To adopt a whole school approach to the management of bullying

OUTCOMES:
- the school is an environment where everyone is free from harassment
- everyone has the responsibility to support more vulnerable peers
- classrooms are free from ridicule, harassment and isolation
- bullies are encouraged to change their behaviour by processes of support and education
- cooperation and tolerance between all members of the school community will be promoted
- all students will gain skill underlying the practice of positive social skills
- removal of the secrecy of the bullying act – ‘Yes it is okay to tell if you are being bullied or someone else is being bullied’
- improved communication between students, parents and staff to develop procedures and practices to successfully manage incidents of bullying should follow.
POLICY IMPLEMENTATION:

Bullying is antisocial. It has no place at Toongabbie P.S. It is the responsibility of every member of the school community to be proactive in ensuring that bullying behaviour is rejected.
